Increasing cloudiness; rain or snow in western portions; warmer Wednesday morning and evening; southerly winds. A cold wave of considerable severity now covers the Upper Mississippi Valley, and extending southward to the Ohio River. It was not appreciable west of Iowa and Missouri. It will probably extend farther eastward and southward tonight, but in the Mississippi Valley the temperature will rapidly rise. Snow is likely to occur to-night in Iowa and States farther north and possibly as far south as Northern Missouri.Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for St. Louis: Generally fair; much warmer.THE work of "exonerating" keeps pace with the work of looting.THE Foerstel case is the first in history in which a plea of guilty was followed by an acquittal.FOERSTEL's attorney may wire him to come back if Zachritz conducts the criminal proceedings.WITH so many Republicans flocking to Tammany, that organization may really be as black as it is painted.WITH only two more months of Republican rule the country can put up with almost any kind of a winter.THE Republican press is inclined to be complimentary to Mr. Murphy and it seems to have an excellent opinion of Senator Hill.WITH Circuit Attorney Zachritz in personal charge of the inquiry into the criminal side of the Treasury robbery the investigation would be in excellent hands for the criminals.WHENEVER politics get interesting in this country women come to the front and to more or less dictation. Mrs. Carlisle will decide whether or not John shall enter the Cabinet.GEN. BOXTON charges Henry Cabot Lodge with evasion, misrepresentation and positive misstatement. There should be a force bill to compel Massachusetts statesmen to speak the truth.FOR his services as a free-trader the French have presented Col. Whitelaw Reid a vase. For his services as a high-tariff people of the United States have presented him his old place in private life.IF the friends of Col. Morrison will drop their brass band advocacy of that gentleman for a Cabinet position they will have better chances of success. Mr. Cleveland is not the man to be impressed with machine-made noise.IF the Republican are had not passed away, the cheek of Auditor Cook of Montana would carry him high up in the party. What is the good in going to the expense of printing statutes when such a man as Auditor Cook is to be had?THE decent citizens of Pennsylvania are murmuring loudly over the assured re-election of Senator Quay. That is the way with too many decent citizens. They do not kick until the object of their dislike is beyond the reach of their boots.THE bill appropriating another quarter of a million to finish the eleventh census will probably pass, but too much has already been spent on this mass of printers' ink and good paper. The Porter census is discredited throughout. As a body of information for scientific purposes it is worse than useless.THE proposed combine against the gigantic Carnegie monopoly is a very praiseworthy undertaking if its promoters are really in earnest, but there is little or no prospect of success. The iron and coal business are nearly all monopolized by the Scotchman and his friends and their competitors will not have access to the necessary raw material. After spending a lot of money in a vain attempt to get afoethold the rival concern will sell out to Carnegie and Frick. This is the way to win all competition in these days.THERE is a difference in the work of garbage collection since the President of the Sanitary Reduction Co. trumpeted out his intention to increase the force of carts and the efficiency of the collectors.
Before that the garbage was collected every week or ten days and now it is scarcely ever collected.SHOULD Edward Murphy be elected Senator from New York we may expect him and his colleagues to attempt a fight on Cleveland which will give the aggressive and progressive Senators from other States a chance to smash "Senatorial courtesy." There is no good reason why two disaffected factionists should block the whole government.

THE WORK OF EXONERATION.

The most picturesque of all the interesting phases of the Foerstel case is the access of zeal for the investigation of official wrong-doing inspired in the breast of William Zachritz, who has just been promoted to the Circuit Attorneyship by the push combine for eminent and valuable services in its behalf as Assistant Circuit Attorney.Mr. Zachritz proclaims through the Republican organ that the Foerstel matter will be brought at once to the attention of the Grand-jury, but in order that it may be properly investigated he will attend to the case himself, although the special duty of presenting such cases to the Grand-jury and guiding their investigation devolves by long usage and practice upon the Assistant Circuit Attorney. Mr. McDonald, the Assistant Circuit Attorney, is an honest and capable lawyer, but—perhaps we should say for that reason—Mr. Zach-ritz refuses to trust him, and from his standpoint he is wise not to do so, for in the same interview in which the Circuit Attorney announces his intention of investigating the case he proclaims his belief in the innocence of ex-Treasurer Foerstel and his ardent wish as a personal friend that he may be "fully and completely exonerated" from any charge of wrong-doing" through a Grand-jury inquiry.Mr. Zachritz' eminent success in conducting "exonerating inquiries," to which he owes his present elevation, was gained by adhering rigidly to the policy of taking the investigation of the wrong-doing of his personal and political friends entirely into his own hands to the exclusion of the Grand-jury and all other court officials.
When so close a friend of himself and his patron Ross Filley as Mr. Foerstel is charged with wrong-doing he can not afford to depart from that policy. His experience in the work of "exonerating" renders it necessary that he cling to it in order that the desired end may be attained. He cannot trust an honest and capable assistant to do the "right thing," nor can he trust even a St. Louis Grand-jury to properly treat the case. His announcement of his intention of super-seding all other authority is a just recognition of the duty he owes to those who put him in office and the reason that he is there.The zeal of the Circuit Attorney which leads him to attempt this work is not nearly as sublime, however, as the gall which induces him to announce his motives.

THE ISSUE.

A correspondent, whose communication is printed in another column, suggests that in the spring canvass the question of the sale of franchises to street railway and other corporations be made the essential issue.There is much to be said in favor of this proposal which has already been advocated by the Post-Dispatch. It is an honest and effective method of getting the most for the city out of public enterprises which depend for their success upon privileges granted by the people. The full value of these franchises should be exacted of every corporation asking for such favors, and provision should be made for an annual payment in the nature of a rental tax, which shall absorb all or the greater part of the value arising each year by the increase of population. A fair interest and profit on the actual capital invested are all that these corporations can justly demand.But the interests of the city demand a more comprehensive issue. A thorough overhauling of all the departments is an imperative necessity. It is right, as our correspondent suggests, to "put candidates on record regarding franchises," but something much more is needed. They should be put on record regarding the present happy-go-lucky and corrupt way of managing all municipal affairs. A general cleaning up is needed in every hole and corner of the City Hall, and candidates should be distinctly pledged to this work.But voters should not delude themselves with the belief that promises constitute a good platform. The best pledge that can be given is in the candidate's own character and reputation. Not only aspirants to office having to do with franchises but all others should be required to show a clean record and absolute freedom from push and other corrupting influences. This rule should be applied from the House of Delegates up to the Mayor's office. It is easy enough to find men having the requisite qualifications, and when they are found the respectable voters of all parties should go to the primaries and see that they are nominated. This last is most important of all, for reforms do not live on good wishes. It is safe to say that if thedecent citizens of St. Louis organize for such a purpose and then do their duty at the polls we shall soon put an end to the power of all rings and pushes.

ONE COURTESY LACKING.

The Council has done all it can to make amends to ex-Treasurer Foerstel for the late unpleasantry in his office. The executive authorities have permitted his bondsmen to organize for the purpose of reinstating the recovery of the deficit on his bond, and have permitted Mr. Foer-stel to place his property in the hands of an assignee without taking any steps for the protection of the Treasury from loss. Circuit Attorney Zach-ritz has announced his intention of taking personal charge of the criminal proceedings for the "exonerated" of his friend Foerstel.The Municipal Assembly, however, has failed to do its duty as a body. It has not yet passed a bill appropriating $64,000 for the relief of the late Treasurer. Until this is done Mr. Foerstel has reason to complain that his interests have been neglected by his official and personal friends.Let this stain on the record of official courtesy be removed at once. The unpleasant incident arising from the accidental discovery of the robbery of the Treasury and the attempted burning of the City Hall may then be brought to a satisfactory close, and attention may be concentrated upon the spring campaign.The ring of bookwriters and chief clerks who have monopolized the State Department records in the interest of a clique of New England historians is pretty thoroughly exposed. But it is very strange that those who were deprived of rights to elapse before putting the case before the public.As a correspondent suggests, accurate information as to responsibility for failure to get the Ways and Means Committee to examine the Treasurer's accounts during the long period in which the law on that point was violated, would be interesting just now.That Comptroller Stevenson should have brought them together is plain; but did he try, and fail? What is Chairman Cole's record in this matter?The Queen and the Princess Beatrice have been learned typewriting. In the event of a revolution displacing the royal family, two of them, at least, will know how to make their living.If Mr. Harrison should have to call out the troops to protect the corporations that seize upon the Utah gold fields while the Government kept other prospectors, will the prisoners then be tried for treason?It is of no use to think of John Griffin Carlisle as Secretary of the Treasury while Carlisle is opposed to his accepting the place.
He will not be a good American husband, Mr.
Carlisle always consults his wife.THERESA CLAREMONT, the terrible feminine Anarchist of Madrid, is said to be a great deal prettier than Louise Michel. It will be well, perhaps, for the cause of anarchy to keep these two ladies apart.AS THE BAR-rooms were kept open in Washington on New Year's Day, the omitted features of the annual celebration were not so much missed as they might otherwise have been.AS ELEVEN members of the New Board of Aldermen of New York are in the liquor business Gotham is in no danger of going dry for some time to come.RUPARD KIELING's baby girl, born on American soil, may do much to Americanize and otherwise improve her distinguished papa.If Col. Jonah wants "a Western man in '93" he should keep still about it. He has already said enough to excite superstition.The thumb-nail sketch of Baby Ruth is a very depressing work of art. No democratic baby ever looked like it.It would be interesting to know what the other cats think when Mrs. Vanderbilt's $1,000 cat mounds the back fence.If Tascott is alive the safest place for him is Chicago. The police of the Windy City would never find him.LONG ISLAND CITY has two mayors. Happy community. Both mayors may not be drunk at the same time.It now seems to be pretty clear that Mrs.
Lense will never stow a senatorial salary in her stocking.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3.—The contest for the office of United States Senator from New York has become a matter of national interest. Politicians spent yesterday talking about the trouble in New York over the United States Senatorship. Although originally only a family quarrel in the Empire State, it has assumed national interest.
The public eulogies of his grandfather, the question of whether the people or the "machine" shall rule. The Cleveland men insist that, now, if ever, is the time for the Cleveland wing of the party to show whether or not they are to shape the policy of the party throughout all the other provinces of Prussia, and also in Saxony, Bavaria and other States of the Empire to whose assistance the Emperor's grandfather was so much indebted in 1870. The speech season in Berlin is now beginning and in court and official circles it is earnestly hoped that the Emperor will be much more discreet in his public utterances than he was last winter.The Allgemeine Zeitung, inspired Bismarck-ian, deprecates the plan to form a new political party with principles of opposition to the Emperor.At the suggestion of the Empress Frederick, the British, Roumanian and Prussian royal families will give to the Princess Marie of Edinburgh, as a wedding present, a morocco frame enclosing group pictures of the three households. Queen Victoria's picture will be the center piece. Most of the presents have already been received at the Coburg Palace. Preparations for a brilliant celebration of the marriage are in progress.The cold is severe and increasing throughout the continent. To-night the thermometer stands at 21 degrees below zero, Fahrheit, in this city. Heavy snow is falling in the Harz Mountains. Suspension of traffic is feared on the railways. All the lakes in France, Germany and Austria are frozen and night fets are being organized in most of the cities. In Vienna the snow has already assumed the proportions of a flood of the unemployed, who will be kept busy all night clearing the streets.A dispatch from Trieste says that the harbor was an arctic scene. A whole family was drowned near Giffhorn, while crossing the Aler on the ice.Two guards in pursuit of a deserter made a household similar to that of a deserter on Saturday night. On his way to the military prison the deserter broke away and ran.
The guards followed, firing, although the deserter had no arms. By more luck nobody was shot. The deserter was caught.

PANAMA PROSECUTIONS REACHING HIGH OF FICIAL LIFE.

PARIS, Jan. 3.—The Figaro to-day says that a next batch of persons selected by the Government for prosecution for complicity in the Panama affair includes four more members of the Chamber of Deputies and an ex-minister. It is also said, it is reported that M. Floquet, President of the Chamber of Deputies, will withdraw from Parliament in consequence of connection of his name with the scandal. A curious story comes from Boulogne of a French soldier captured in the war of 1870, who was repeatedly reimprisoned for attempting to escape. He was released but a few days ago and reached Boulogne yesterday and found his wife married and his two children of several children by her second husband.Four fresh cases of cholera were reported to day in Dunkirk.

PASSENGERS FUMIGATED.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 3.—All passengers ticketed for the United States now arriving here by English steamers have to be fumigated at Halifax. Their goods are also fumigated. The fumigation is done in one of these machines reached nearly 300 deg. last Saturday, and the goods and a fur coat belonging to one of the passengers were so much damaged by the value, the proprietor of the same passenger, was so shriveled that the owner would not take it with him.A by-law, granting a bonus of $12,000 to the Ottawa & Parry Sound Railway, which will traverse a rich timber district and shorten the distance between New York and the Northwest by several hundred miles, has been passed at Ottawa.The amount of customs duties collected at the port of Montreal for the year 1892 shows a decrease of $60,000 as compared with 1891.

EXPLODING THE ATMOSPHERE.

PARIS, Dec. 31.—M. Gustave Hermite announced that he had for some time made use of an advance by M. Capazza, the aeronaut. He constructed a set of small balloons, 12 feet in diameter, which he equipped with a tiny boat, in which a registering barometer was placed. These balloons are left to navigate the air at will. Ten of them were launched by him on the 21st of sixty miles from where they had been started. A card of instructions left in the boat advised those who found them where they descended to return the instruments to him. By this means he was enabled to ascertain that one of his balloons had reached a height of 26,200 feet. He is now engaged upon constructing an aerostat which can reach an altitude of 60,000 to 90,000 feet.

A NEW PHONE.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—A new and important maritime invention by an Englishman will be useful in the future. It is an instrument called hydrophone, which Capt. Mac-Evoy, its inventor, has subjected to a number of thorough tests and submitted at last to the tests of the Royal Society. It was experimented with it for several weeks. The instrument is dropped into the water at a proper distance from the shore, with which it is connected by means of an electric cable.
It signals the approach of a man-of-war within a radius of a mile and that of a torpedo boat within half a mile.

BERLIN, Jan. 3.—The Emperor has announced his intention of paying another visit to Cows this year, and intends to be there for the Royal Yacht Squadron's regatta which begins on Aug. 1. The Emperor will go over in a new yacht, which is being built at Elbing and is now nearly finished.
Emperor William is reported to have received a caution from the King of Saxony and the Grand Duke of Baden against any further public eulogies of his grandfather, the Emperor William I. The Emperor is reported to be particularly sensitive on this point, and the tactfulness which his majesty evinced so ostentatiously for the inhabitants of this province, and his frequent extravagant panegyrics on their loyalty and bravery, have provoked a feeling of resentment throughout all the other provinces of Prussia, and also in Saxony, Bavaria and other States of the Empire to

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Not Likely to Be a Quorum in the House To-Morrow.

WASHBURN'S BILL TOPS THE CALENDAR IN THE SENATE.

Opponents of the Anti-Option Measure Will Try to Delay Consideration—Critical Stage of the Bill's Progress Reached—Representative McMillin's Friends Feel That He Has Been Slighted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3.—Up to noon today indications were that less than one-half the members of Congress had returned to the capital city. Those who did not leave Washington at all during the holiday recess are of course on hand, but many of those who returned home and to other points on business matters are not yet back. The probabilities are that when the gavel falls in the Senate at noon to-morrow a quorum will not be present. This is also likely to be the case in the House. So far as the House is concerned it will make little difference whether there is a quorum or not, for that branch has no important measure coming up during the present week.

In the Senate, however, the anti-option bill will have right of way and a desperate attempt may be made to displace it, provided Senator Washburn is found not to have a full quota of his supporters in their seats. Of course if there is no quorum no business will be done and the anti-option measure will remain in its present position. A good many of the Senators who are supporting the bill and will vote for it are out of the city and will probably not be back for several days to come. Among these are Senators Allen, Casey, Davis, Paddock, Perkins, Sanders and others. These gentlemen, as is well known, have returned to their States to look after their chances for re-election. It is evident on every hand that the opponents of the anti-option measure have by no means decided to allow the bill to pass if they can hit upon any scheme to prevent it. Their future tactics regarding the bill are a mystery just at this time, but that some plan will be devised to either delay the vote, or displace the measure is an established fact. Senator Washburn will be on hand to lead the fight in behalf of the bill to-morrow, and as a critical period has arrived he will have his hands full.

WHERE IS McMILLIN?

HIS NAME OMITTED FROM THE TREASURY INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3.—There is trouble in the Ways and Means Committee. It began with the appointment of the subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee to investigate the financial condition of the Treasury. Representative Wilson of West Virginia introduced a resolution calling for an investigation. Representative Dockery of Missouri presented a similar one. The committee on Rules decided the investigation should be made by the Ways and Means Committee. When the resolution was laid before that committee Mr. Wilson moved that the investigation be made by a subcommittee, to consist of the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee—Mr. Springer—and four other members. The motion was carried. That afternoon Mr. Springer announced that he had named the subcommittee. They were Representatives Wilson, Turner of Georgia, Thomas of Illinois and John C. Warren. "Where is McMillin?" asked the friends of that gentleman. Benton McMillin of Tennessee, the second member of the Ways and Means Committee, had not been named. Mr. McMillin's friends were astounded. They asked why he was ignored. They could give him no information. As the inquiries and protest were being laid pour in on Chairman Springer, he gave an explanation. He had read in the papers, he said, that Mr. McMillin was to be absent from Washington to assist at the burial of Senator Gibson. He wanted a meeting of the subcommittee the next day, and wishing to have all members present, had appointed Mr. Turner of Georgia. Mr. Springer expressed a desire to enlarge the subcommittee so that Mr. McMillin might have a place among its members. He had had a meeting of the full committee so that he might be formally authorized to do so. The incident in the present political situation is regarded as having considerable significance. Messrs. McMillin, Springer and Wilson are three of the most prominent Democrats in the House. Any one of them might be pushed for Speaker. In the event of Speaker Crisp's re-election all three of them might want the chairmanship of the Ways and Means Committee. Mr. McMillin has been developing support and his friends say somebody is trying to freeze him out.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

CONGRESSIONAL JUNKET PLANNED TO THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3.—An extended trip in contemplation by members of the House and Senate, or at least a part of them. The scheme is a visit to the Hawaiian Islands, to be taken by fifteen Republicans and fifteen Democrats of the House and seven Republicans and seven Democrats of the Senate, who are members of the present and will be members of the next Congress. One of the chief reasons for the proposed trip is said to be a desire on the part of the United States Government to counteract the influence which Englishmen are exerting in the islands to prevent and keep down American commerce.

The dynamite gun is coming to the front again. Strange as it may seem, Commander Folger, who has just returned from the dynamite cruiser Vestal and her guns, is now a hearty advocate of the system. Before serving his connection with the Ordnance Bureau he formally approved a design for a first-class torpedo boat with a pneumatic dynamite gun. The design of the torpedo boat and gun, although bearing the mark of the Ordnance Bureau, is almost an exact duplicate of the plans recently furnished by the "Yarrow" company of this country. The craft will contain the usual torpedo apparatus as an important auxiliary to the dynamite gun. The intention is to ask Congress to make an appropriation for several of these torpedo boats during the present session. The House Naval Committee will soon take up the subject of new ships. The dynamite gun comes up to the expectation of their advocates. It is understood that Chairman Herbert will favor the construction of a torpedo boat or two mounted with dynamite guns of the improved type.

OKLAHOMA OFFICIALS.

Chief Justice Green of the Territory on Cleveland's Policy—Opening the Land.

Judge E. B. Green of Mt. Carmel, Ill., Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma Territory, is at the Laclede, en route to Guthrie to hold court, the regular January term convening this afternoon at 4 o'clock. There is a mistaken idea entertained by quite a number of politicians as regards the appointments of Supreme Judges of the Territory. Quite a number hope to secure the position in Oklahoma by making a speech in the House of Representatives. Mr. Cleveland is sworn in as President of the United States. Under the provisions of an organic act, the Governor holds his office for four years, or at the pleasure of the President who made the appointment. The same is true of the Marshal, District Attorney and Secretary. The Supreme Judges hold for four years absolute terms. Judge Green, the Chief Justice, is from Illinois; Judge John G. Clark of Wisconsin and John H. Burford of Indiana are appointed by President Harrison, and their commissions will not expire until May 25, 1894, and according to the organic act Mr. Cleveland cannot remove or reappoint until that date. Gov. Cleveland, a native of Missouri and cannot be removed until the 26th of May, 1894, speaking of the changes in office likely to be made by Mr. Cleveland, Chief Justice Green said: "I have been a Republican all my life and was the first man in Southern Illinois aware of the changes in the interest of Abraham Lincoln, the first man I ever cast my ballot for, but I do not believe that Cleveland will make any changes in the Territory unless it is absolutely necessary. If a good Republican man is put in the Territory, he will not be removed. The Supreme Bench is well qualified, he need have no fear of being removed, for Cleveland is a Republican. I will allow a Republican to hold over if he is better qualified to fill the position than the Democratic opponent. I have pursued this course, and as it was Cleveland's during his first administration, he will in all probability follow up the same line, as it proved entirely satisfactory to the masses." Speaking of the opening of the Cherokee Outlet, Judge Green is of the opinion that if the present Congress does not open it, the "booners" are likely to open it for themselves no little amount of trouble. Referring to the situation, he said: "There are hundreds of emigrants coming to the border now, and if the present Congress does not open up something like 500,000 acres of the best land in the United States, the people will take it by main force. The Cherokee Outlet will have to be opened sooner or later, and if the Congress were to open it, the situation in the Territory they would not hesitate to open up the fertile land for settlement."

TO LIGHT ALTELD'S WAY.

The Collinsville Flambeau Club Will Attend His Inauguration.

COLLINSVILLE, Ill., Jan. 3.—The Collinsville Flambeau Club is busily engaged preparing for its trip to Springfield on the occasion of the inauguration of Gov.-elect Altdorf. It has purchased a complete outfit of new uniforms and expects to eclipse all former displays. This club has the reputation of being one of the finest clubs in the West. Its girls are peculiarly its own. One of the features of the parade in Springfield will be a body of fifty Republicans who will march under the escort of the club. They are going along, as they express it, "to attend the funeral and help lay the body to rest." The Jacksonville & Southern Railroad has tendered the club a special train for the use of its members.

THE ST. LOUIS SCHOOL EXHIBIT.

Miss Mary McCulloch Discusses It and Incidentally the World's Fair.

Miss Mary McCulloch, supervisor of Kindergarten here, has just returned from Chicago, where she put in a good week and then for the St. Louis schools. She was with usual tact and judgment did much to increase the already good opinion of the St. Louis kindergarten system. She went to attend a series of lectures upon an international system of educational arts, and between times usual tact and judgment did much to increase the already good opinion of the St. Louis kindergarten system. She went to attend a series of lectures upon an international system of educational arts, and between times usual tact and judgment did much to increase the already good opinion of the St. Louis kindergarten system.

Miss McCulloch said to-day: "The broadening influence of the World's Fair is something surprising. Already the foreigners who are in Chicago, either to settle or to look after their native lands, are greatly impressed and have grasped the American idea. The World's Fair is a most decided impression upon the world and this year it is the most decided impression upon the world. We will do our little share in the exhibition. Our exhibit, that is, the St. Louis school exhibit, will be in the liberal and broad, and of course, we will make the best show we can."

Federal Court Notes.

The United States Circuit Court was in session this morning, but no business was transacted. In the District Court a jury was called, and the case of B. M. Stuebfield, charged with retailing liquor without the payment of a special license, was brought to trial. A number of liquor cases are docketed which will occupy the attention of the court for some time.

HILLEY'S MAN WILL GET IT.

Republican City Committee Looking for a New Chairman.

At the next meeting of the Republican City Central Committee Chairman Michael Forrester's resignation will be received and accepted. This morning Charles Schwelchardt, who has been prominently mentioned for the chairmanship, said he would not accept it under any circumstances. "My private business engagements," he said, "are very exacting and I prefer to give them my entire time and attention. I would prefer to serve my party as a private rather than as an officer."

Among the others named are Committee-men Fahnd of the Twenty-first and Frederick of the Twenty-second wards. Mr. Forrester was not a member of the committee when he was elected, and the committee will, it is understood, select a leader from without its ranks at its next meeting. If Hilley would take it he could get the post without difficulty, as his friends control the organization. "De ole man's" friends, however, declare that he will not have it under any circumstances. The new chairman will, however, be as strong a supporter of Hilley as the outgoing presiding officer.

GUARDING THE FRONTIER.

Disposition of Troops Along the Rio Grande.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 3.—In an interview yesterday Gen. Wheaton, commander of the Department at Texas, said: "The bandits on the border will probably prove troublesome, as they are fully acquainted with the country and can escape from the frontier. We have now in the field the 3d Cavalry and two troops of the 7th Cavalry, from Fort Riley, Kan. There are camps established at various points along the Rio Grande. Capt. Harde is located at the Comanche ranch, and Capt. Jackson at the 7th Cavalry is at Laredo. Capt. Chase is at a ranch near the mouth of the Rio Grande, and the 3d Cavalry is at Fort Hancock. These are constantly on the alert seeking information and if hard work will accomplish anything the bandits will soon be run down."

Gen. Wheaton, in his annual report recommended that cavalry be sent here and, as a consequence, the three troops of the 7th Cavalry were ordered to the frontier. The troubles are prolonged, it is very probable that additional troops will be sent in.

FAIRBANK'S Clairette Soap will do all the work on wash day. Get it and give it a chance.

Natural Gas Exhausted.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 3.—It has been finally settled that the natural gas belt is no longer equal to the demand. The pressure is so low that it is no longer useful for heating purposes in homes even. But what appears to be a calamity may prove to be a blessing, as several of the largest factories here are experimenting with crude oil for fuel and have found it almost as cheap as natural gas, far safer, more easily controlled and always uniform in pressure. The hundreds of factories here and at Lima, Fostoria, Bowling Green, Perrysburg and Toledo are preparing to use crude oil, a move that will be regarded with interest in manufacturing circles the country over.

Peddlers and some grocers will tell you that this thing or that thing is "the same as" or "as good as" Pearline—what better recommendation do you want for Pearline?

They tell you this because it pays them better to sell these "same as" stuffs. But how will it pay you to use them? Any saying that they can offer you, in prizes or prices, can be only nominal. The loss in ruined linens, flannels, muslins, etc., can be large.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.

A New Weather Report—Warmer Weather To-Morrow.

A new scheme has been adopted by the United States Weather Bureau which, it is believed, will prove of great advantage to farmers. Weekly reports from the wheat-growing section have been ordered, which will state the amount of snow on the ground, and what protection it affords to the winter wheat. These reports will be distributed throughout the country. The first was received from Iowa to-day. In the neighborhood of Des Moines the thermometer dropped to 10 degrees below zero, but as the depth of snow amounts to three inches, the wheat is perfectly safe. The lowest point touched by the mercury here was 6 degrees above zero, and this will be the lowest during the present cold snap, as to-morrow will be much warmer than to-day. The cold wave that is just passing away is peculiar. Instead of coming from the northwest, it came straight down the Mississippi river, where reaching west of Missouri. Its influence will probably be felt as far south as New Orleans.

World's Fair Auxiliary.

Mrs. M. H. Howell of New York, a member of the World's Fair Auxiliary, arrived in St. Louis this morning and is at the Southern. Mrs. Howell had a consultation with Secretary Grimm this morning in regard to World's Fair matters and will leave in the morning for Chicago where she will attend a meeting of the auxiliary.

HAIL NEW YEAR!

McNichol Grooms You.

Days, weeks and months have flitted by since friends and mates together met. To wish the good New Year good speed. And hurry every deep sigh. New year again—fresh start and fair, Dropping a veil upon dark deeds, Making a vow to build up anew And harvest from the better seeds.

Hail New Year with an untired shore We know not what you have to give, But we have better chances now Than ever. If we'd rightly live, McNichol's plan enables all To buy what goods they need or wish From prior splendours—costly, fine—To stores, like, kettles, pans or dish.

"Why, no," said Tom, "last year, you see, I had a stick or bed or board. I lived from hand to mouth at best. For comfort I could not afford. A decent family I know. High carpets, curtains, gorgeous new, Poor folks who had no bonds or stocks."

You need no wealth, no purse of wealth. We have the household goods you seek; No man need suffer lack or need. All can pay something by the week. Wait not until rates get too high. McNichol's plan is in law: No debt will crush or bear you down.

All hail to the New Year! May the ill, hardships and the sorrows of the old year, now dead, be speedily forgotten and swallowed up in the victory of the new one. Call on (Trade Mark) THE ONLY McNICHOI, 1015-1022-1024 Market St.

P. S.—Best furniture, carpets, curtains, pictures, portieres, dishes, stores, all household requirements at the lowest possible price and on the easiest terms for long time or credit. No house will deal with customers so liberally as that of Our Daily McNichol. All will be happier this year than last.

and "cure-all," but this they originally and, have persistently refused to do. They knew—and the widest possible experience has proved their position—that Ath-lo-pho-ros, while it does of necessity cleanse the blood and act healthfully upon the kidneys, has its own true and clearly defined field as a prompt relief and sure cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc. In this field it has no competitor and that is enough. The public should be careful not to accept any substitute for Ath-lo-pho-ros, especially preparations bearing an intentionally similar name and deliberately put out in underhanded ways to defraud the proprietors of Ath-lo-pho-ros and to deceive and mislead sufferers from rheumatic and neuralgic affections.
